Sunshine P&O competes in triathlon, matches donations to Camp No Limits

Sunshine Prosthetics and Orthotics of Wayne is raising funds for Camp No Limits, a non-profit organization providing camps for children with limb loss, as well as education, mentorship and support to these children and their families.

Funds are being raised through the practice's participation in the annual Lincoln Park Triathlon on June 30. Sunshine P&O will match all donations to Camp No Limits by team members, families and friends.

"There is no other camp available for children with limb loss and their families with the therapeutic programs that Camp No Limits has to offer," said Brooke Artesi, CPO, LPO, an amputee since the age of 15 who is committed to living an active lifestyle and serving as a role model for her patients.

The Sunshine P&O team will participate in the biking, running and swimming events at the triathlon, which takes place at the Lincoln Park Community Lake near Ryerson and Comly Roads.
